9-year Estonian hip fracture data (modified) inclusion criteria: a) age ≥50

b) hip fracture diagnosis between January 2009 - October 2017

Hip fracture event

HIP FRACTURE TYPES

femoral neck

pertrochanteric

subtrochanteric

1st step:

Acute care

acute hospitalisation, fracture management

2nd step:

Post-acute care

mostly rehabilitation in different in- and outpatient settings

FRACTURE MANAGEMENT METHODS

total hip arthroplasty

hemiarthroplasty

osteosynthesis

conservative / nonsurgical treatment

DESCRIPTIVE VARIABLES

length of hospital stay

received physical therapy

post-acute care type